Karla Gudeon
Artist Statement and Bio

"In creating art, I strive to conjure my most joyous experiences and bring them to a visual format. I love knowing that through my artwork viewers garner a deep emotional connection and purchasers delight in coming home to my ketubot."

Karla is a storyteller. She culls her images from her own family lore and cultural influences. It is through Karla's natural ability to tell a story, her empathetic nature and sense of fun, that her work attains its universal appeal. As with the best folk and lyrical art, Karla's work is wholly accessible while encompassing emotional honesty and layers of meaning. Her celebrated paintings are displayed in galleries and distinguished collections throughout the country and abroad.

Karla entered her family's artistic and musical world in the Bronx, NY 1961 . She has a BFA from Parsons School of Design in NYC.

Karla lives with her supportive husband and two amusing sons in Smithtown, NY.
